

CARDIOLOGY GRAND ROUNDS

Renovations in the House of Medicine

Joseph Hill, MD, PhD

Professor of Internal Medicine and Molecular Biology; Chief of Cardiology at UT Southwestern Medical Center

April 12, 2019, 12:00 p.m.

Denton A. Cooley Auditorium
Room C060

At the conclusion of this conference, participants should be able to:

- Articulate the evolving landscape of cardiovascular science and medicine – past, present, future.
- Recognize the importance of obesity and diabetes as a global pandemic with inevitable cardiovascular consequences.
- Successfully communicate several exciting opportunities presently available to address the evolving challenges of heart disease.

Texas Heart Institute is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Texas Heart Institute designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Dr. Hill has nothing to disclose relevant to this program.

The Planning Committee has nothing to disclose.

The THI CME Staff have nothing to disclose.

The Program Reviewers have nothing to disclose.